

CHICAGO POLICE

DEPARTMENT

HELP FIGHT CRIME ANONYMOUSLY

CASH REWARDS UP TO $1,000*

The Chicago Police Department created the TXT2TIP program so that YOU can anonymously and SAFELY help rid your community of crime by sending information to the Chicago Police Department via a text message from your cellular phone. Follow these easy steps to submit a tip via text message:

1. Create a new text message or SMS text on your cellular phone
2. Enter the number 274637 (CRIMES) in the "TO" line
3. In the message box, type the word CPD, a space, and then your crime tip information
4. Hit "send" to send the text message

You will automatically receive a system generated message back on your cell phone acknowledging your tip. Your identity will not be sent to the Chicago Police Department.

IF YOU SEE A CRIME IN PROGRESS OR NEED TO REPORT AN EMERGENCY, PLEASE CALL 911

For more information on TXT2TIP, please visit the Chicago Police Department website at www.chicagopolice.org/txt2tip

*The cash reward is provided by Cook County Crime Stoppers for information leading to an arrest.

Richard M. Daley
Mayor
City of Chicago

Jody P. Weis
Superintendent of Police
Chicago Police Department